

Mp3 Rich Austin - Right At Home

DOWNLOAD HERE

High-energy collage blending jazz, latin, blues and free-music. Features original compositions by Bob McHugh and Tommy Labella, as well as one old standard and an older Irish folk song, all given a unique treatment. 6 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: World Fusion Details: Drummer Rich Austin's edgy, high-energy collage blending jazz, latin, blues and free-music. Features original compositions by Bob McHugh and Tommy Labella, as well as one old standard and an older Irish folk song, all given a unique treatment. Personnel: Rich Austin - Drums and Percussion Bob McHugh - Piano Tommy LaBella - Alto Saxophone Ron Naspo - Bass Rich Austin has been a drummer, percussionist, composer, and vocalist on the New York, New Jersey music scene since 1978. He's played in countless groups of varying size, style and configuration from big bands and symphonic orchestras to smaller ensembles featuring Jazz, Latin, Rock, R+B, and even Country. In 1985, he began a long creative association with pianist-composer Bob McHugh that continues to this day. In 1992, Mr. Austin released the CD "Smoke Signals" on Alliance Records, his debut album as leader, and in 1994 performed on and co-produced Bob McHugh's CD "Manhattan Sunrise", also on Alliance, which featured latin percussionist Ray Mantilla. Others he has performed with include pianists Alan Farnham and Bob Sardo, bassist Lisle Atkinson, trumpeter Vinnie Cutro, and vocalists Michelle Bautier and Arlene Carole. Currently, Rich is touring in support of his September 2004 release "Right At Home" on the Lunge Music label.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: