Related styles: POP: Synth Pop, ROCK: College Rock People who are interested in Modest Mouse of Montreal The Unicorns should consider this download. Details: Funny, honest, keyboard-driven pop from four under-21s with a cool sense of rhythm. Hurry Up and Thrill Me, their debut, is out soon. XLR8R, Oct. 2008 This ridiculously young, gritty Portland quartet is wise beyond its years. Willamette Week, Sept. 2008 Birthed in basements with a sound polished amid the sweet chaos of a summertime house party, Southern Belle represent the wide-eyed second shift of Portlands music scene. Portland Mercury, June 2008 Chances are, if youre only 17-20 years in on the young, up and coming Portland Music scene, Youve heard of Southern Belle. PDX Magazine, April 2008 Southern Belle is: Ross- guitar, vocals Austin- keys, vocals Nicole- bass, vocals Max- drums These kids have played 19 house shows since the band formed less then a year ago. On top of that, they've been fortunate enough to hit a few main stages around town. Such as: Doug Fir, with Starfucker Hawthorne Theatre, with Tilly and The Wall Holocene, with Yatch Hawthorne Theatre, with Jaguar Love Modern Age, with Kickball They even got a chance to take part in Music Fest North West this year, when they opened for Matt and Kim. This Album is the result of months of good times at KBC Records. What producer Shay Scott does for these 4 is amazing. And the guest drumming from Josh Hodges and Jeremy Sherrer, is nothing but icing on the cake. Mastered by Carl Saff in Chicago, and Pressed by CD Forge in Portland. The self-released, 17 track debut, Hurry Up and Thrill Me, and music video for Sunnyside are out and ready!
