KORIJE , 2007- Album Audio in CDs : Creole Songs Composer and Artistic Director. Productions: Talegrand NOEL Between may 2006 and may 2007 with the collaboration of Konsey National Finansman Popil (National Counsel for rural financing), The European Union and Oxfam Angleterre, Telegrand Noel spent the year planning and setting up an office to provide services and support to peasants organizations . It is in analyzing the countrys conditions an after having been asked by the minister of social affairs to support the construction of social centers for destitute children that he was inspired to produce the socially directed album korije(change) . The purpose was to raise awareness on the violence, the crimes, the lack of peace, the conditions of destitute street children, the importance of school and education, the need for a change of heart and mind to move forward in the right direction. The album begins with an excellent piece particularly addressed to the Diaspora to encourage them to raise their childrens awareness on the reality of their country of origin and invite them to participate in rebuilding efforts. Because Lakay se Lakay (home is always home). The piece entitled Di yo (Tell them) is the result of the artist encounter with a group of young adults that avidly questioned him about their roots, the history of Haiti as part of a research he was conducting on the Haitian community living in South Florida with the Archdiocese of Miami. This album also contains a medley of two songs that are a vibrant tribute to the courage of Haitian mothers. Telegrand became a folkloric singing preacher to offer the public a more vibrant and rousing music with enchanting and joyous melodies as if to make it easier to absorb the weightiness of the issues expressed. To do so he surrounded himself with talented artists such as: Isabelle Saint-Hilaire and Mireille Zamor whose voices speak to the heart and to the guts Georges Bertrand a guitar expert whose outstanding abilities are reminiscent of Carlos Santana Wesner Saint-Louis, the greatest Haitian drummer of the time Dickens Princivil, a cello player admired for his talent Jean Remy Clerveaux who plays the keyboard as easily as he breaths And several other musicians whose creativity made a real jewel of this album SA SE PEN LAVI A, 2008- Album Audio in CDs : Creole Songs Composer and Artistic Director.
