Mix one part Monumental Round one part the Doors, besprinkle liberally with make noise and orchestrals, and dish out with whiskey. The back album from Hollywood industrial project THE 3RD intuitively navigates across electronic genres. 12 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Industrial, ELECTRONIC: Experimental sounds and silence Songs Details: Jonathan Liber (the 3rd) has been a professional musician for years, and has played with various national and world touring acts as well as having experience in movie scores. In February 2004, 'the 3rd' offers us "sounds and silence" (2004, Fraction Records); an allegorical exploration of abandoned truths, duplicity, and regeneration. Intuitively navigating a labyrinth of genres- from the unrelenting brutality of 'Fuckstick' to the rollicking, immense beats of 'Flakebus'- "sounds and silence" bridges the waters of post-industrial electronica. Jonathan; no mere 'button-pusher', becomes the architect of Babel, generating a pandemonium of aural strains. Not always transparent, he postulates on the deconstruction and rebirth of the self- the destruction of the ego- and demonstrates the transcendent ability to personify one's art. This is readily apparent to those fortunate enough to have experienced any of his numerous live performances; more ritual than showcase, that feature a revolving roster of guest musicians, dancers and performance artists. Whatever the embodiment, Jonathan's purpose is clear. As a musical medium, he holds up a mirror into which we might see the true reflection of our selves; he flips that 'light switch' that we all might drag our skeletons out of the closet to dance with us.
