Lullabies written specifically with daddies in mind. This unique collection of traditional and original songs expresses the strength and tenderness of the father-child bond. 30 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Lullabies, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: The prevalence of lullaby tapes with a mother-child orientation reflects the understanding that women are nurturing. "Daddy's Lullabies" demonstrates that men can be nurturing too! The songs and different Dad voices convey the intimacy of "tuck in" time, while the lyrics are simple, full of images that soothe and comfort, and sprinkled with gentle humor. A variety of tempos and moods mimic the energy level of the typical bedtime routine, with gently conversational songs to help children wind down. The recording is designed to encourage dads to share the bedtime hour with their little ones (babies, toddlers, and older children too!). It is a great gift for fathers-to-be, new fathers, and single fathers, or for wives to show their appreciation and support for their hubbies' nurturing side. In awarding "Daddy's Lullabies" its prestigious Gold Award, Parents' Choice says, "Of the eighteen sleepytime songs on this album, the twelve by husband and wife Diana Levine and David Levine (including 'Rockabye Flying Trapeze', 'Butterfly Turtle' and 'Saving your Sleepies') vary from exquisite to merely beautiful." "Daddy's Lullabies" has also received a NAPPA Gold Award and the Film Advisory Board's Award of Excellence. Since 1989, Vermont's Re-Bop Records has been pioneering age-appropriate children's audio entertainment and amassing a loyal following of kids, parents, caregivers, librarians, and educators.
