

Mp3 Tranz4mer - In Terr

A creative mixture of Electronica and acoustic samples and vocal splashes, with a couple of remix tracks. 8 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Dance, ELECTRONIC: Electronica Details: For this project, I wanted to focus on making the tracks uptempo, not necessarily a dance record, and to keep them less than 6 minutes, since my previous two projects were more of a downtempo, ambient groove. The project initially started when I created a song for the UNLV Dance Department. Professor Havey approached me with a song in hand, "Blue Heat," and wanted me to make the song similar to that. "Chariots Azul" is the result. I had been working on the "In Terr" remix (originally appeared on my unofficial first cd "Dream Scenery") for quite some time. I finally finished it to my liking and included the final remix in this project. "Gene Poole" was created from a sample taken from "Cragston Loop" from the "Terra Morphic" album (which can be heard on my website). "She Walked Away" started when I found some acoustic guitar samples, beautiful female vocal oohs and aahs with, and various electronica washes. I brought it all together, and decided to open the track with a glass shattering. And "Republika" is remix of a remix of "Seague" (from Gate). The original remix, "Ugeeas," can be heard on my TranzMusik website. The remaining tracks were created for this project. I wanted to end it with a very fast track ("Upsprial"). My original plan was to end it with "She Walked Away," but wanted to leave the listener with a song which is typically uncharacteristic of my style, but also to make you want to stay tuned for more to come. All of these tracks can be heard in their entirety on my website. If you take the time to visit, please sign the guestbook! Please note that this project is available in eco-friendly cd packaging, just a cardboard jacket - no jewel case! This project was professionally mastered in New York by Edward Vinatea. Enjoy.
