Book two in the Werewolf Sentinels series. Being shot in his dire wolf form by his would-be mate while hunting caribou wasn't exactly how Wachei expected to happen upon their first meeting. Heated kisses and passionate embraces, yes, but not flying bullets. Eryn wasn't pleased to see a strange man standing next to the caribou she'd just brought down. The kill was hers, and if he thought he could take it from her, he could think again. But once she comes near, and sees how gorgeous he is, suddenly getting as close as possible to the sexy stranger is job one. As the heat between the couple intensifies, a threat looms, that of a lone wolf the sentinels have crossed paths with once before. Wachei knows he must bring Eryn into his world a lot sooner than he'd planned, especially when another threat is discovered-the very evil he and his wolf brothers were created to destroy is closer to home than they'd thought.
