As soon as a desperate David Chandler walked into the small-town Laundromat, his stained shirt vanished from his mind. His new focus: the beautiful woman at the center of the Suds Club. But the dynamic Naomi Shannon wasn't looking for love--she was four months pregnant, and memories of her failed relationship still stung. Little did she know her new friend Dave wasn't the regular guy he seemed. On the run from his life as a New York City captain of industry, the big-city tycoon was in search of something to fill the void in his heart. Had he finally found what he was looking for--or would the relationship come out ruined in the wash?
