World music 8 MP3 Songs WORLD: African, WORLD: Afro-Beat Details: Awa Melone is a singer and songwriter of World Music songs originally from The Ivory Coast. Awa Melone's musical career took off following a tour in West Africa, where she arrived in Ouagadougou, Capitol of Burkina Faso. She was then solicited by Seydoni Production to work at the studio. This was an opportunity for her to work with several national and international artists. She then joined the group Djogon System, with Bil Aka Kora, and performed in European countries, among them Austria, France, and Switzerland. Proud of this experience, she decided to aim for a solo career. She recorded her first successful song Djon Milon with the group Gang Rebel. She then started a two month tour in France where she performed in many cities in 2005. Two years later she made her first album Plus dAmour, and it was then recorded live at Seydoni Productions with the best talented musicians from Burkina Faso. The new album, using exceptional recording quality was mixed and masterized at TRAX 52 Recording Studio in the United States. The album is a fusion of Blues, Jazz and Mandingo music with African flavor. Plus DAmour has eight titles in French or Dioula (African language). In the album, Melone is calling for more understanding between people, solidarity, and above all, PEACE and LOVE. From handicapped child to the elderly, Melone exhorts all of us to listen to each other, and to extend our help to everything People who are interested in Miriam Makeba should consider this download.
