An eclectic mix of classics re-styled in ambient, jazz, and pop genres that are intellectual, artistic, emotional and spiritual. Pure, honest vocals make this great music to relax with. 12 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, POP: Delicate Details: To create "The Love I Feel", Christine collaborated with Chicago jazz arranger Rose Colella and Philadelphia producers/arrangers Barry Sames and Martin Mellinger. She also teamed up with New York City vocalist, Aaron Fuksa to sing three duets for the album. "This project began as a private recording experience that I intended to pass on to my children someday. Once I was in the studio I was moved to continue recording other songs that are special to me. After two years, I realized my experience had blossomed into a compilation of 12 emotional songs. Making 'The Love I Feel' was a wonderful experience for me," said Christine, "and I hope this music will touch the heart strings of those who listen." Christine released her debut CD titled "The Love I Feel" to raise money for Pennsylvania based charities. Christine is donating the proceeds from the sales to the Kelly Anne Dolan Memorial Fund and The Breathing Room Foundation, two non-profit organizations that support families with a medical crisis by offering financial management education, financial assistance with uninsured necessities, and helpful hands. Christine Rachelle's diverse musical career has allowed her to work as a private voice teacher, vocal coach, concert soloist, musical theatre teacher, actress, and Kindermusik teacher. Prior to recording "The Love I Feel," Christine was the Director of the Joyful Noise Studio in suburban Philadelphia for 11 years where she vocal coached and music directed for many musicals in professional and local theatres. During the production phase of her CD, Christine co-hosted an infomercial for Medifast, was featured in a TV commercial for Women's Wellbeing products and appeared live several times at Odette's Cabaret in New Hope, Pennsylvania.
