Acoustic folk with a gospel "bluesy" feel 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Blues, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Ed has performed his music in hundreds of concerts throughout the U.S., Europe, and the Caribbean. He has produced a total of ten LP's and CD's. Ed hosted the Saturday Night Special and The Gospel Musical in Boston and is currently the co-host of Seasoned Soul Series, a portable variety show in pre-production that will feature performers of many kinds originating in St. Paul, Minnesota. He has appeared with some of the leading gospel artists of the day and was a founder and baritone/bass singer for the Envoys Quartet until launching a solo career. His latest CD is Rock of Ages, A Collection of Contemplative Hymns and Songs with a soon to be released album of "camp meeting" style songs. Additionally, a CD tentatively entitled, Songs In The Key Of Life, is in progress with a release date in late '05. Also, an "anthology" representing some of the best of Ed's music through the years will be released in '05. In addition to Rock of Ages, currently available CD's are Good News Blues and George, Alexander, Clark John. Look for Ed with Seasoned Soul, a collection of musicians who represent a variety of musical expression. Work is underway to launch an Internet Streaming Radio program called The Seasoned Soul, a program of interviews, commentary and music with Ed serving as host.
