An original mix of spiritual songs with a creamy acoustic blend of mandolin, dobro and guitar. You'll find some blues and some grass...a lil' bit of everything for the worshipping heart and the Americana lover. 9 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, BLUES: Acoustic Blues Details: Fool for Now consists of David Farley and Tabbitha Easley. They reside in lovely Siloam Springs, Arkansas, within minutes of each other. The story begins with two graphic designers and a chance meeting at a local newspaper. A year and a half later, their first CD was released. Fool for Now is just now branching out into what God has called them to do as it relates to the music and becoming undignified before others in worship and song. The heart cry of this duo is that the love of Christ be made known to all who have an ear to hear. Our songs are written out of our experiences with the Lord. Each song is personal and bears witness to the truth of God in our lives. Tabbitha added. David is a multi-instrumentalist (guitar, dobro, mandolin, banjo, and bass) as well as a singer/songwriter. David is also a graphic artist for the Herald Leader newspaper. David has many musical projects currently in progress including work with his other band Mulberry Grove, which is an eclectic mix of progressive bluegrass and traditional folk music. David also just recently finished laying down dobro, mandolin, guitar and banjo parts for two local artists, Traci Letellier and Reese Neal. His broad range of talent allows him to lend his instrumental abilities to other artists and to forge new musical relationships. David enjoys worshipping at the prayer house as well as enjoying the great outdoors when the time allows. Tabbitha is a mother of four consisting of three girls and one darling baby boy. Married for 9 years to her husband Tim, their entire familys names begins with the letter T, even the dog Tater. Tabbitha is a freelance graphic designer as well as a columnist for the local newspaper, the Herald Leader. She enjoys caring for her children at home and renovating her 105 year old farmhouse. Tabbitha has been perusing her love of Jesus for about 10 years now. I have just recently become serious with my worship and music unto the Lord; most of it being birthed in my time spent at the prayer house.

Concerning the new album, On This Day, Tabbitha had this to say, Its like my fifth baby. David and I have put all of ourselves into this record and I like to think that the Lord has topped it off by imparting his spirit into every song. I hope our listeners will sense, most of all, his presence in our worship. Concerning Shows: Fool for Now is currently playing shows locally, at times pairing up with local talent such as Traci Letellier. Davids instrumental talent can also be found on Tracis latest EP released entitled, 58 Transtar Deluxe. For upcoming show information, please contact Fool for Now at the email address provided. They welcome show invites to local venues and churches. Fool for Now would love to come worship with you.
