All of these fine musicians come from varied backgrounds from bands performing Country, Rock, Blues and Jazz. Their musical journey together has taken them from the banks of the Hudson River for Riverfests, to the Tower of Power Stage of the Time Warner Goodwill Games, to the stages of numerous theatres such as the Helen Hayes, schools, aquariums and zoos, but most importantly...into the hearts of many children and their families. An outgrowth of Gigis years of classroom work teaching pre-school music and musical theatre, these songs run the gamut from the active folksy favorite Im a Little Rabbit, ragtime dance Hug Me My Bear, Woofer Blues, jovial bedtime production number written for son, Evan - Ready For Bed, the sailing calypso of Deep Blue Sea to the relaxed and humorous acoustic peak-a-boo song Oh How Can This Be? Parents kept after Gigi to please record and make these songs available, and here they are.
