Relaxing and uplifting music created with keyboards and flute. 8 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: This CD takes you to inspiring open places, from soaring over the snow covered volcanic peaks of the Aleutian Islands to sitting by a quiet bay. Many of the pieces were used as a soundtrack for a documentary about flying over Alaska. The trailer can be seen at Flyelectra.com. A few faster pieces keep the mood varied. Paul Kreider's flute is imaginative a free flowing. John Rich has been inspired by mountains, lakes and the sea ever since his early years in New Hampshire. He has always had a strong desire to capture a sense of place with music. Summers on the lake where "On Golden Pond" was filmed began forming his musical roots. In 1974, his bread-and-butter role, as a human resource manager and trainer, allowed a move to the Pacific Northwest. He has been creating musical images of these magical places ever since.
