Details: Johnny Hollow - Biography Johnny Hollow is Gothic chamber music for the 21st century. Like a sirens call, their unique blend of dark electronic and orchestral sounds have attracted fans since 2003. Their music has received critical acclaim from such diverse publications as Rue Morgue (Canada), Fiend (Australia), Funprox (Netherlands) and Legends (US). Bag of Snow, the single from their independently release debut album, was featured on a compilation CD for D-Side (France) and Club Electra Magazine (Japan) respectively. Recipients of online accolades (Peoples Choice Website of the Year) and intensely loyal fan support, johnnyhollowboasts an active forum (500+ members), an extensive global membership in excess of 3000 addresses and at least 3 unaffiliated fan sites. Conceived as holistic artistic vision, Johnny Hollow is Janine White (vocals, electro acoustics, and keyboards), Kitty Thompson (cello) and Vincent Marcone (artistic design). Both classically trained, Janine White and Kitty Thompson weave the threads of piano and cello to an unnatural end creating a tapestry of madness and passion throughout the bands soundscape. Completing this audio transcendence, the darkly disturbing images of Juno winning artist Vincent Marcone transport the observer to a place where darkness is but the beginning of the journey. "This is not the last you will hear from this three-headed beast." (D-sides Magazine, France)
