This CD includes live tracks to sold out crowds in beautiful concert halls on Martha's Vineyard, Cape Cod and New England. It also includes songs recorded at Air Studios, London. You can find Julian's name alongside a body of works with the likes of such legendary artists as Peter, Paul and Mary, Bob Dylan, Pete Seeger, and others. He has shared musical evenings, either opening up for or creating and jamming, with the likes of Richie Havens, Hugh Taylor, James Taylor (at Dogfish Bar Grill), members of the Grateful Dead (New George's), Liv Taylor, Alex Taylor, Sally Taylor, Ben Taylor, Carly Simon (The Whaling Church), Jonathan Edwards, Marty Balin of Jefferson Starship, John Cipollina of Quick Silver Messenger Service, Michael Kamen, Jojo, The Wailers, Ramblin' Jack Elliott and one of his favorite moments, a live impromptu performance of John Lennon's "Imagine," early Sunday morning, the third day of Woodstock 2. He is lovingly referred to as the most "famous unfamous person you will ever meet." His musical abilities include harmonica, piano and anything with strings, especially the guitar, creating contributions and endorsements from the Fender Guild and Martin Guitar corporations. He has also received complimentary harmonicas from Hohner Harmonica for his classic rock blues harp performances. The Boston Globe has called him the "idealistic tunesmith" as he has written a song used by Special Olympics, "Special People", in which all proceeds benefited Special Olympics. Also, he is working on "The Buddy Song" with Lee Sklar, Russ Kunkel and others for the Best Buddies Charity. He is also a founder of the Eternity Foundation and its subsidiaries including Records, Concert Series and Guitar Series. Mission Statement - To always remember that the riches of the soul are far better than the riches of the world. ----- Letter from Julian Dream to Dream May the nations be glad and sing for joy. All over the world at the exact time singing together in love with Peace. This is one dream. Here is another. To find yourself under the wing of some of the most wonderful singer-songwriters and earth-shakers of modern times. To watch, learn, and co-write songs so that one might contribute to the cause of sharing musical joy. This is one of the many dreams which has come true for me, thank God. With the love and guidance of the legendary Peter, Paul and Mary who helped bring a young Bob Dylan to the stage (Blowin in Wind, etc.). As Dylan inspired The Beatles, and, in turn, the rest of us. Another dream was to write and record an album from Air Studios in London to Capitol Studios in Hollywood with one of Dylans producers, Bob Johnston (Blonde on Blonde, etc.) at the helm. Surrounded by engineers and musicians, Russ Kunkle, Lee Sklar, Hugh Taylor, and all the many singers of Our Love I had only dreamed of working with up to now. All my Love, Julian
