With a clean, melodic sound and the ability to straddle seemingly opposite worlds, Leah stands poised to become one of the most popular commercial female R&B/POP singers. The singer/songwriter a native of Florida moved to Atlanta to turn her dream into a reality. Leah has opened for musical acts Earth Wind Fire, Chaka Khan, Pieces of a Dream, David Hollister, Keith Washington and Destinys Child. She also performed on the Levis 1st stage as one of the opening acts for the Backstreet Boys and headlined at the Hard Rock Live in Orlando Florida. Leah had the privilege to record a duet with legendary music producer Kashif (Whitney Houston, Kenny G and Dionne Warwick). She has also recorded with hit makers Full Force (Lisa Lisa and Cult Jam, James Brown, Selena, LFO). Her musical influences include R&B balladeer Brian McKnight, Whitney Houston, Celine Dion, Nancy Wilson and songwriter Dianne Warren. In 2002, Leah co-wrote and recorded The Victory Is Mine for Mary Kay Cosmetics, Inc. Top National Sales Director Pamela Shaw booked Leah nationally to perform for the company. As Ms. Shaw stated, "a song like this catches on. It is used at our workshops. Word spreads through our voice mail that hits some 9000 people a day. It also spreads through our e-mail, which travels endlessly! The song has already been embraced by a large audience in the Mary Kay world but the potential for it is huge." In 2005, Leah went into the studio to record her second studio album. It's been a long process but I'm very proud of the record. I've been given the opportunity to write an album that is reflective of me. Through my journeys I've had the great privilege to meet and record with some amazing producers who have so generously given me their time and shared their talent. It all comes down to timing in this industry, and I believe that this is my time. :) -Leah
