The contemporary gospel melodies, will encourage, uplift, and minister to the listener the seasons of life: "The End of a Matter," "The Waiting," "A New Beginning," and "Harvest Time." 9 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: Janicka Newbill"Camden, NJ's Upcoming Artist for 2006!": Psalmist, deaconess, songstress, teacher, and believer: You probably know many people who can claim one or two of these titles. But how many people do you know can claim them all. In the heart of Camden, NJ there is one; one woman. A woman, who since the age of six, has performed songs along the southern and eastern coasts of the U.S. A woman who teaches the young and assists the old; A woman who above all else ministers the word of God through music; A woman whose name is destined to be great, known only to the world as Janicka Newbill. Janicka has always known of and appreciated her gift. Though it wasn't until 1995, when she rededicated her life to her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, that she realized her singing would be a ministry irrevocably dedicated to magnifying and glorifying God. Since 1995, two years after she received her B.A. in Communication Liberal Studies from William Patterson University, Janicka has allowed God to use and expose her in ways many artists only dream of. To her credit, Janicka was one of 500 contestants selected out of 20,000 entries for the Gospel Dream 2003 competition sponsored by Bishop Paul S. Morton and Tehillah Records. She has performed as a featured soloist on the stage of the Tweeter Center (Camden, NJ), and the 2001 Camden Mayoral Inauguration. Her membership as an Unlimited Praise vocalist flourished as a songwriter and soloist on the acclaimed Bubby Fann album Judah Prayze. Not to mention having shared the stage with Bobby Jones, Vickie Winans, Trinitee 5:7, Virtue, William Becton, and Kenton Rogers, just to name a few. Standing on the words of Psalms 57:7, My Heart is Fixed, O God, My Heart is Fixed: I will Sing and Give Praises, impossibilities become possible and limits become endlessness. Janicka affirms that wherever her Abba Father leads her, she will follow. Her current album - released March 2006 features music to encourage the soul with the assistance of producers Shannon Woodall (ChoirBoy Productions) Franklin "Bubby" Fann (BF Sounds Music Group). Together, they created musical compositions to capture the essence of every season a Christian encounters with their walk with God. In totality, the seasons of life to ENDURE.
