For countless centuries, vocalist violinist Thoth and bassist percussionist Rhan Wilson have roamed the environs of space, sending musical reports back to earthbound beings via this digital musical transportation disc. 12 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Ambient, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: For countless centuries, vocalist violinist Thoth and bassist percussionist Rhan have roamed the environs of space, sending musical reports back to earthbound beings. They have now techno-fitted this vehicle, their most sophisticated craft, which enables them to reach even more exotic worlds. Chronicling their most recent cosmic sonic journeys, this digital log finds Thoth (of the Oscar-winning documentary "THOTH") warping his violin and stretching his voice into innumerable galactic tongues to record their adventures, while Rhan translates the rhythmic pulses of comets echoes into the engines percussive beat to steer their craft. Together, the nomadic duo takes you soaring on their virtual flying carpet of sound. From the beginnings of the universe to a future not yet fully imagined, our Space Gypsies will transport you past drifting cosmic debris, through urban space stations and beyond the farthest blue star.
