14 fast and ferocious songs, by the kings of powerpop, The 905s. These Canadian high energy rockers, have their feet in the late 70's punk, new wave era, but are built for the modern age. 14 MP3 Songs in this album (40:07)! Related styles: POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Punk People who are interested in Buzzcocks Ramones The Who should consider this download. Details: The 905s are blasting out of the suburbs of Toronto, Canada with high energy, powerpop, rock and roll. Well crafted, catchy, gems, that are reminiscent of the British new wave scene of the late 70's, but still very much in the 21st century. Strong melodies, slashing guitars, slamming drums and bass. It's as if The Who, The Clash, and Green Day met for a rumble, and decided to join forces. The 905s are also wowing crowds with a strong, powerful live show. If you want to sing along, dance, or pump your fists in the air, your band has arrived.
