An eclectic blend of influences, drawing upon American roots, rock, pop, contemporary folk, country, and jazz. When these four young women come together with their songs and harmonies, something truly magical happens. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk-Rock, POP: Brill Building Pop Show all album songs: Marigold Songs Details: The Near Misses are an all-female quartet featuring some of North Carolinas finest vocal songwriting talent. The group performs an eclectic blend of originals, drawing upon American roots, rock, pop, contemporary folk, country, and jazz influences. Each member is a gifted songwriter and musician in her own right - Shana Blake (bass), Reeve Coobs (acoustic guitar, djembe), Eva Gael (acoustic guitar), and Etta Lea (electric guitar, mandolin) - but when these four young women come together with their songs and harmonies, something truly magical happens. The Near Misses have been the recipient of the Best New Band Award in the Arts Entertainment category of the Creative Loafing Readers Choice Awards, and in 2006, Creative Loafing named the group the Best Band (Readers Choice) in its Best of Charlotte: International Edition. In 2007, the band won "Best Vocal Harmony" in the Best of Charlotte Awards. Marigold is the first studio album by the Near Misses. They will continue touring in the Southeast and along the East Coast to promote the new CD!
