COUNTRY: Country Blues, BLUES: Soul-Blues Details: I was born in New Orleans where I lived until I was 15 years old. I was heavily influenced by the culture especially the people and the music. As a young boy my mother and I would take the street car to the flea market in the French Quarter on the weekends. I was inspired by the street musicians and tap dancers, some of them as young or younger than me. After 30 years I've finally come back to New Orleans to reestablish my roots. Northeast Texas is home several months out of the year.... I have a long history in Northwest Louisiana as well as Northeast Texas... I consider myself fortunate through the years to have been exposed to the rich musical history both have to offer. After years of travel and much searching I've settled into a style of my own accented by my influences. My sound is typical of country, folk and blues with soulful sound. My First Concert ... when I was 6 years old, while visiting relatives, my Mother took me to see Johnny Cash at the Louisiana Hayride in Shreveport, Louisiana. I must have been star struck without knowing because all I wanted to do after was sing and pretend to play guitar. And yes !!! Johnny was dressed in black that night. Now that I'm older, looking back I believe I've always had passion for music. After years of procrastination and years of writing songs and playing I am finally doing what God intended me to do... tell stories and send a message in the form of a song. So here I come! Look for me and my CDs everywhere!
