Check this out... There comes a point in every internet marketer's career where he gets besieged by testimonial-seekers and review-requesters wanting to capitalize on his good name. But really, who can blame them? You've worked hard to not only make money online, but become someone that people look up to and trust. Adding your testimonial to a product gives it much more value, and you know that. You also know that there are dozens of truly great and innovative products out there. You wish you had time to review and recommend them all, but it simply isn't possible. It's a well-known psychological fact - people will go out of their way to avoid looking stupid. That includes making what might become a "stupid" purchase. Why do you think reviewer comments and opinion sites are so popular? They help us make informed decisions so we don't look "stupid". Testimonials are much more powerful. With every testimonial you make, a small piece of your "brand" goes with it. Customers who are loyal to you will take a serious look at any product you lend your name to. What you say is just as important as how you say it. Now, you'll never have to worry about writing the "perfect" testimonial, because you have: Testimonials Generator - The Only Software of its Kind that Automatically Writes Proven = "Attention Getting"
