The Best of "MARK TWAIN IN PERSON" Volume 2 Over an hour of professional studio recordings of stories, speeches, and scenes performed by Richard Henzel as Mark Twain, taken from his celebrated play. About RICHARD HENZEL: A veteran stage, screen, and television actor with forty years of experience portraying Mark Twain for audiences all across the U.S., in Canada and Great Britain, Richard Henzel's Mark Twain characterization has also been employed by Encyclopedia Britannica Films, General Motors, Coronet Films, and PBS, and his voice has been heard as dozens of characters in Twilight Zone for Radio, as Marley's Ghost in NPR's "Christmas Carol" and as the clock radio in the film "Groundhog Day." His most recent film role was as the voice of John C. Reilly's motivational guru in the film "The Promotion." These mp3 files will play on Windows or Mac computers, mp3 players, and can be also burned to a cd as mp3s or audio. When installing, burning, or uploading the files, be sure to set preferences to "no pause" between files. The longer selections have been "indexed"--with silent breaks included at regular intervals for easier navigation of the files, and pauses are already included at the end of each chapter. If you want to burn audio cds of the book, you'll find that this album contains around an hour of audio and will fit onto a standard cd.
