For those of you who are already fans, don't worry - there are many more rockin' blues albums in the wings, but do yourself a favor and check out the softer side of Miss Barksdale. Becky explores her Texas roots (little known fact that her two great-uncles were members of The Sons Of The Pioneers) with this beautiful collection of 5 original songs. From the touching sentiment of "I'll Say Goodbye" to the delicate and deeply personal "I've Missed," Becky's voice and guitar shine with emotion and honesty. The intimacy of this 2002 release may be a reflection of how it was recorded. With the exception of Armen Ksajikian's cello performance on "I've Missed," Sean Caffey's pedal steel on "I Can't Stop Loving You," and mixing by Tom Caffey, Cowgirl Blues was composed, performed and produced by Becky alone in her studio - with special thanks to Joey Waronker. Be the first to discover this very home-grown indie release and these soon to be classic songs!
