Go on a musical journey where songs taken from everyday life transform into that mystic place called Level Seven: a place where soaring harmonies meet rhythmic acoustic guitars; ethereal synthesizers support ecstatic guitar leads and the songs exude love. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock Details: The music of Chris and Daya Doolin transforms as it reaches out with energizing, captivating clarity. Building on a rhythmical yet mellow base of syncopative acoustic guitars and brilliant vocal harmonies, the Doolins soar to glorious heights with their ethereal inspiring sound. Award winning singer-songwriters Chris and Daya Doolin custom blend their acoustic rhythmical folk into the musical worlds of inspirational pop, adult contemporary, new age, world and country music... but don't categorize them, their music transcends traditional labeling. It is rich in percussive expressiveness and layered harmony. It has roots in the past but branches out into a creative mixture that is pleasantly unique. Audiences identify with this warm and vibrant duo, whose songs reflect the aspirations and triumphs of everyday life. They draw from a diverse background of personal experience and musical style to choose the blend of original and cover material that they perform. The Doolins met as street musicians in Philadelphia, where they performed as a part of an acoustic funk street act. The group parted company at the end of tourist season, and Chris and Daya continued on as a duo. They evolved into folk music, country music and onto a contemporary acoustic/pop sound. Since that time, they have performed their unique blend of soaring harmonies and pulsating rhythm in venues throughout the Eastern United States. Along the way they have received awards for their song writing and vocal talent. Audiences feel a special relationship with this warm couple, who emphasize a positive, good feeling in their performance and musical style. The name of Chris and Daya Doolin's current project, Level Seven. signifies commitment to perfection in all their musical endeavors. The evolution of these two singer/songwriters has brought a natural affinity for recording, which has manifested in three projects to date. Their first EP album, "SIDES OF LOVE", was produced by Good Company Productions, followed by a self-produced, self-titled cassette album, "Tomorrow Is Now". This original project has been updated to their present project, a CD entitled "Level Seven." For booking and/or for more information Please contact: Chris and Daya
