Rhapsodic and eclectic Alternative Indie Pop 11 MP3 Songs POP: Beatles-pop, POP: Quirky Details: Vancouver's Cinderpop is back with their second full length release on Bongo Beat Records, "Their Skies Are Beautiful." Back is the eclectic landscapes that made their first release "Violet Gamma Rays" so explosively original. From pastoral to distorted/ whimsical to melancholy, Cinderpop returns with another fine collection of songs to sail through. Vancouver's rhapsodic popsters Cinderpop have been haunting the indie pop scene on the west coast since their since their first album Violet Gamma Rays charted across alternative and college radio throughout Canada and the US. A video for the song "Sniper" appearing on Much Music and a spotlight on Much West helped make their presence known as one of Canada's more melodic and inventive rock acts. Made up of members Kevan Ellis (Sk Robot), Mark Jowett (ex - Moev), Joel Myers (Holly McNarland, Texture) and Digger Watkins (A Murder of Crows/ Twitch), they have also added keyboardist Erin Jane (Salteens) for their live show. Street date for release is September 20th 2005. Cinderpop will be appearing at the Pop Montreal Festival on September 29th as well as other shows in Ontario in late September.
