A unique blend of traditional Djembe rhythms and song, split level timing, pure funk and African diasporal influence. 7 MP3 Songs WORLD: African, WORLD: World Beat Details: Farafina Kan literally translates to the Sound of Africa. Founded in 2000, the group exists to serve as a guardian of traditional Mandingue culture while bridging the gap between African and African diasporal cultural art forms. The name Farafina Kan was given to the group by Mamady Keita, the world's greatest living Djembefola (Djembe Master). Farafina's musical foundation is grounded in traditional Djembe music and infused with Hip-Hop, Reggae, Go-Go, Jazz and a variety of traditional and modern breaks, dances, and songs. Farafina Kan has a deep repertoire and each concert is equally engaging and thrilling. Farafina Kan is truly an experience and is available year round for concerts, festivals, private parties or dance/drum workshops.
