Transparencies, far instantaneous, hypnotic candor, echoes suspended, invisible travel without time, essence, expanded like horizon, imprecise distances, passage on clouds, energy flies and goes. 6 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Virtual Orchestra, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: Too much white is the sun for the eyes and does not never sunset midnight in the garden of the good and the evil. Those happens that it happens, therefore the hour passes and you don't see, don't feel nothing more. Like in a time there are lost, a secret passes, and you follow it, gentle, like when you show the shadow at the sunset, lost. And you will raise yourself, see, beyond their dominion On ten fingers, sun beams to remember me, I follow crystals and wings pressures over there. Genesis cosmos, ancient grace, only smoke, and day after day, fear to fly, on other dances, other waits. Our time goes backwards and doesn't grant nothing, for all there is a moment, at the twilight the candor, away from the flags, away from the civilization.
