Country and folk-style with 6 of my original songs including one about the Maritime mining disaster of 1992 12 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: This CD is Gary's best one yet. It contains 6 original songs written or co-written by Gary Boyle and reflects his easy-listening, mature voice suited for people who want to actually hear the words and the music. This CD is orchestrated beautifully again by the producer and arranger, Earl Filsinger of Stratford, Ontario, along with the help of all the various musicians who participated in this project. The songs reflect Gary's life in a lot of ways especially the one entitled The River and Me since Gary grew up near the Thames River in London, Ontario and spent a lot of his boyhood days there. Gary's wife Karen wrote the words to Song #6, 26 Good Workin' Boys which is about the Westray Mine Disaster in the Maritimes in 1992 where 26 miners died. The music on this CD is amazing - listen to the fiddle by Don Reed (who plays with the likes of Dwight Yoakam, etc.) The flute on the Irish folk song Fields of Athenry is also a very nice touch. Gary recorded a couple of Slim Dusty songs (the great Australian balladeer) entitled Camooweal and Lights on the Hill.
