Jaime Valle and Equinox have the chemistry of versatility and soul in their music necessary for a great Latin jazz sound. On one song they play deep salsa beats, rich and danceable. On the next they turn out classic Santana, adding their own creative style to Carlos' tunes. On another song they might go free-form and just jam with a conga and timbale backbeat. Jaime Valle's guitar work is excellent, and he is backed up by awesome keyboard, percussion, and horn work. You want Latin jazz? go see Jaime Valle and Equinox." -- Digital City San Diego "...Are you a jazz fan? Have you had a chance to see one of our greatest guitar exponents, Jaime Valle? If not, then make it a priority this weekend to catch a set, by the man who many of his peers (as well as myself) consider to be not only one of the finest musicians in this town, but also one of our towns greatest treasures. -La JOLLA LIGHT
