12 radio-friendly jazz songs (both contemporary and straight ahead) with a blues influence 12 MP3 Songs
JAZZ: Jazz Fusion, JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo Details: Jazz guitarist Kenny Carrs, Turn the Page, is an original assortment of radio-friendly melodies with an underlying influence of blues as he draws upon his decade of experience playing guitar for Ray Charles. Turn the Page features 2005 Grammy-nominated tenor saxophonist, Donny McCaslin, as well as highlighting nationally renowned acoustic bassist Tom Baldwin. New York based musicians organist John Dryden as well as drummer Frank Russo complete the esteemed list of talented musicians appearing on this CD. Turn the Page, Kenny Carrs sophomore release, is a much anticipated follow-up to his critically-acclaimed and well-received debut CD, Friday at Five.
