She began writing instrumental piano pieces at eight years old, and a year later, she won the National Reflections Competition for music composition in elementary schools. When Lucy was twelve, a songwriters performance so inspired her that she came home that night and wrote her first song with lyrics. She hasnt stopped since then! Lucy is a 2007 ISC (International Songwriting Competition) finalist in the teen category for the song, I Dont Know A Thing. Her songs have been featured on the TV series, South Beach and Runaway. Her singing can also be heard on the Emmy Award-winning series, Arrested Development. Now it can be told, the sultry chanteuse of Mr. F on Arrested Development is, in truth, the voice of Lucy.
