Details: Moira grew up in the revival of these incredible old songs. She writes new songs to join in, and her award-winning group, VOCO soothes and rocks out to both new and old. Shape-note singing bloomed in New England between 1790 and 1830. It was written by mostly itinerant, rural composers with driving rhythm, un-sentimental lyrics and the use of fa so la solfege (to teach sight-singing). This program won the support of a Meet The Composer Creative Connections grant. This EP is a fierce, fearless celebration of four voices raised together in a beautiful room. Banjo cello lay down the groove and the still landscape for the weaving voices. moira smiley VOCO tour the US, Canada and Europe. Original improvisation-built songs steeped in Appalachia and Eastern Europe. Voted #1 a cappella band in the U.S. in 2007, VOCO is the energy of street singing and the elegance of a string quartet. Just released September, 2008, moira smiley VOCOs Live EP "circle, square, diamond flag" is starting to receive rave reviews. Sweet, hard-driving Americana mixed with crooked eastern European dance and dissonance. It's rounded out with rompin stompin'percussive movement. Joyous, magnificent, hair-raising harmonies music that mourns and dances at the same time. Called "fascinating and multi-lingual" by the LA Times, "Persuasive,near perfect musicians"by Herald Times. VOCO takes their music to festivals, listening rooms and headphones across the U.S. and Canada. VOCO's singing is lyricism in motion - utterly unique
