Early musical influences were songwriters John Prine, Leonard Cohen, Mississippi John Hurt and Guy Clark. His songwriting has developed into his own unique storytelling and musical style. Tornado Sky is a collection of stories and ballads. The subject matter of the songs cross a wide spectrum of topics, from the lighthearted "Johnsonville Faire", which is reminiscent of older country blues songs dealing with sexual relationships like Mississippi John Hurt's "I'm Satisfied", to a love song written for Paul's wife of thirty years "Just Fall", to the waltz tempo "Memories of You", a haunting look at the life of an adult child dealing with a parent's Alzheimer's. The songs are well written, and are recorded in a very organic and natural style. You'll listen to this one again and again!
