Charismatic Hawaii-born frontman Dave Bess and the vocal trio of Mareva Minerbi, Margaret Larson and Georgette Stern remain the group's bedrock, with Bess' uncanny Marley-esque raspy crooning style elegantly shadowed by the girls' ethereal, I Threes-like chirping -- all punctuated by percussionist Matt Grundstad's percolating rhythms. Newcomers Ben Franklin and Jeremiah Murphy lock down the rhythm section, guitarist/vocalist Andy Parrott supplies a non-stop blur of driving rhythm chops and slinky, serpentine solos, and keyboardist/vocalist Paul Hala adds varied, spot-on textures. Beautifully recorded by John Svec at Minstrel Recording, "Movement" glides and rips through 11 original tracks in the quickest 65 minutes imaginable, mixing socio-political messages with upbeat celebrations of life on this melodic, celebratory tour-de-force.
