Details: The Avalon Parade is an Ambient/Folk Rock/Experimental band from Northern Virginia. They consist of two people; James Girouard and Annie Long. James and Annie have been playing together for a little less than a year and have managed to put out five albums in just this past year. They both are very artistic people and try to really express themselves in their music. Their harmonic musical arrangements and pieces are very stunning. Their music enables them to capture the essence of exactly what they're going for, capturing sounds from various genres and incorporating it perfectly into their music. Their heavy lyrical driven folk music will make any person whose yearned for love truly understand.
