Details: ABOUT THE SINGER/SONGWRITER Rob decided to make my music available on CD Baby because friends he had given a copy to often requested another, because they had worn theirs out, or wanted one for a gift. Their feedback was encouraging and in some cases so enthusiastic about how much they loved his music that it became clear he should try to find a way to learn if there might actually be a broader audience. After doing some homework, Rob selected CD Baby as the obvious choice to work with. While still in his teens, Rob learned basic guitar chords so he could play in a band with some friends. Soon he was creating melodies and writing the lyrics to go with them. He kept playing as a hobby and more songs followed. Through career, marriage, raising children and life, songs continued to appear. Finally, with a large birthday looming and having lost his lifelong friend Bill who had encouraged him to do so, Rob decided to record a few of those songs. The result is Together, a compilation of original songs written by Rob over the past few decades. He also sings the lead vocals. Personal Note From Rob The songs in Together reflect emotions ranging from despair to happiness to everlasting love. They are about special people whose lives intersected with mine and added to the fabric of my life this time around. It came to me that it was time to hear these songs in their full glory, enhanced by the best musicianship and technology available. It was a thrilling experience, I am more than happy with the effort and most of all, I hope that you enjoy the results. My deepest thanks to Adam, James, Damian, Marc and Steven for their dedication, professionalism and the sheer fun they brought to the project. Ill always be grateful that the stars aligned to attract such a stellar band to my personal quest.

Special above and beyond thanks to Adam Chalk, the immensely talented Music Man, who was so instrumental (smile) in making my music come alive.
