The music is composed to represent Tedesco's inner belief, hope for world peace and life's experience. In all the Arts and Sciences, living is the most important and precious. Thomas Tedesco is one of Southern California's leading guitar improvisers. Equally at home with mainstream or modern music, Tedesco is fast becoming one of this country's most dynamic and resourceful guitarists. Through the years Tedesco has kept one foot in academia earning a Bachelor of Arts in Music Composition from California State University Dominguez Hills and a Masters of Music in Jazz Studies from California State University Long Beach. Tedesco has written and published a "Jazz Guitar Instructional Manual". Tedesco is part of a continuum of jazz artists who have dedicated themselves to an evolving style of music that is uniquely American. He has remained a fixture on the creative music scene since 1970 performing numerous concert and club dates in a variety of musical settings with many notable jazz artists. Tedesco's first release on Nimbus Records received a four-star review in Down Beat. A unique sonority not normally heard...could easily be a Blue Note, Riverside catalogue item...check out Tedesco's sound...His pristine single line voicings rival that of Joe Pass, Pat Martino or Joe Diorio...Team work personified...well conceived and played...very fine effort...Highly recommended. review Michael G. Nastos Tedesco belongs in the sphere of the "intimist" guitarists Jim Hall or Kenny Burrell...superb qualities of the composer Tedesco are undeniable...perfectly vibrant...instruments resound deliciously. Michel Maestracci J@zz Hot review Cool Bop Lines...Tedesco
