The bands home for performance has been downtown Dayton, but having gained a modest local fan base they are ready to spread their sound WORLDWIDE. Each member of the Heart Attack has an intense love for a variety of artists, which conveniently merge into melodic, keyboard driven art rock. Sounds good!?!? Yakuza Heart Attack has in fact been described as good, and even 'great' before. They have also been described as NES-Core, which is the hardest of cores. Check them out if you like: enormous synthesizers, video games, early electronic music, sheer beauty, four men sweating, and the tears of Jesus.
