Stick-in-yur-head melodic rock laced with wit, sarcasm and very tasty guitar licks. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: 70's Rock, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: "The Bozwell Incident", the second CD released by Bozwell, provides 12 more quirky little gems. "Graduation Day", a snide look at school, opens the CD with an uplifting reggae groove that balances the sarcastic lyric. Mountain Man is to many the crme-de-la-crme of Bozwell's work to date, fusing bluegrass to prog rock in hither-to unimaginable and adventurous ways. Wheels No. 1 is a lush techno ballad. Your Money or Your Life, with its funky New Orleans groove, has a chorus that will stick in your head to the grave. Turpentine Joe is pure delight, a McCartneyesque look at the hobo lifestyle, inspired by The Autobiography of a Supertramp by W.H. Davies (the same book that inspired the name of the famous pop group), as is The Tuning Song a bluegrass instrumental that shows off Bozwell's finger picking mastery. My Perspective and Be There use hip-hop and R&B grooves to deliver their introspective lyrics (think Marvin Gaye meets Jethro Tull). Harry Can I Borrow Your Gun?, a stark arrangement with acoustic guitars, well sung by guest Grant Boyko, is dark and intriguing. Zombie Peepo does for the wah-wah what Frampton's Do You Feel Like We Do? did for the talk box. Dont Wake Me is shimmering and ethereal, deep with layers of e-bowed guitars. Finally, All Is Fine (In the World), a bittersweet country-rock ballad, leaves you with a grin and feeling just that.
