Blessed with the support of an incredible family, Darren lives inside the music business fulltime and has been blessed to perform and serve with top Christian recording artists and church leaders across the country. His distinct vocal style and songwriting skill effectively communicates the message of Christ, the Gospel message, and reflects the heart and commitment of the artist. The Early Years... At a very young age, it was evident that Darren possessed a talent for music. His first tunes were multi-track inventions recorded on cassette tape. He used household items to create interesting rhythm tracks and would play various cheesy accompaniment through a Casio keyboard that his Dad had bought him. The end result was one-quarter music, and three-quarter tape hiss! And interestingly enough, Darren didn't do much singing during the early years. That part came a few years later once he met his wife. The Defining Years... A singer herself, Darren's wife (girlfriend at the time) encouraged him to join the church choir and after weeks of playful harassment, he joined. With the support of a great music staff and incredible friends, Darren found the gift that would define his life. Once married, Darren faithfully served at First Baptist Church in Brandon, Florida until 1997 when he and his family headed for Texas to begin a new job. Little did he know that his journey to Texas would lead to a fulltime career in the music business. While serving at Second Baptist Houston under the leadership of Dr. Ed Young, Darren was blessed to perform with top recording artists and serve with incredible church leadership. His heart for ministry flourished there and in 2001, he knew God was calling him to a more focused ministry through the music God was giving him. The Ministry... In July 2002, Darren began to perform nationally and accepted a call to serve as Artist-in-Residence at his former church, First Baptist Brandon. Darren was returning to his musical and ministry roots, and the support of his church, family and friends has been a tremendous blessing to the entire family. Through his powerful vocals, intelligent lyrics and expressive musical style, Darren prays that his music will change lives for the sake of the Kingdom. We look forward to serving with you soon.
