Details: David Peterson 1946 return to Bluegrass roots with a vengeance. It's great to see them win over new listeners with the all-out intensity of the music's first era. Die hard audiences love them even more. This is not just another band doing overplayed standards. they dig deep into the classic songbag, pick with precision, team work and sing with a force and control that takes you back to when bluegrass was hillbilly and proud of it.
