How 'bout Power Folk Rock with a bit of Chrissy Hynde vocals, slide guitars, saxophone, and bagpipes. Yeah, you got it. Not add some soul catching lyrics, sensual and intriguing, and harmony.....that's Grace Millo. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Power-folk, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Grace Millo is the sister of International Opera Star, Aprile millo and punk rock pioneer Rick Wilder of the legendary Maus Maus and The Berlin Brats. Talk about eclectic influences! She was raised in Europe, but finally settled in NYC where she met a girl named Minx, and they formed AMANDA'S WAITING. Grace wrote 3 CD's worth of material for the band as well as performing with them. They worked with Russ Kunkel and MCA publishing on their second album 'JUST LAY', received critical acclaim, evened opened up for the Neville Brothers before splitting up. Grace went on to pursue a solo career. She has been awarded the ASCAP PLU$ AWARD for recognition in songwriting, three songs of hers have been used in Independent films, one just won the award for Best Independent Film at the Houston Independent Film Festival. She has a song featured on the Figjam label's MARRY ME Cd, Benefiting the ACLU and Same Sex marriage rights, a song on the GOGIRLS Compilation CD, along side K's Choice, and Rachael Sage, and recently appeared at the Music for Life Benefit in NYC. Billboard mag calls her music, 'haunting', see for yourself.
