Avant-guard rubato style free-within-the-structures group improvisation. 7 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Free Jazz, JAZZ: Bebop Details: After a seven year hiatus from performing and touring Hal Galper reemerges with his new CD Agents Of Change. With bassist Tony Marino and drummer Billy Mintz he has created a radical departure from his previous recordings. Playing in what is called the Rubato style, they have fashioned an unique approach to interpreting an eclectic mix that includes three Galper originals Waiting For Chet, Sonar, and Liquid Audio, as well as unexpected versions of the Tin Pan Alley evergreens How Deep Is The Ocean, and On Green Dolphin Street. A super-melodic version of Wayne Shorters E.S.P. opens the album and tucked away in the middle of it all is their rendering of the old Swedish folk tune Dear Old Stockholm. Agents Of Change is Hals first hard copy release on his own Fabola Records label.
