POP: with Live-band Production, POP: Folky Pop Details: "Jennifer Harper's songs speak to so many of us. Her words and melodies stay in my head all day. I am always moved by the way her words speak to me and my life as a woman, mother and artist. There is something here for everyone in this artist's beautifully made debut CD. This is a very special artist coming into her own. A gem of a record. Five stars from me." Tina Shafer (Director of the New York Songwriter's Circle/writer/performer) "Romantic, yet empowering" " A masterpiece in the gallery, with the voice of an angel. Hard to compare to anyone else. Every single song is awesome!" ----- I am a mother. I am a singer. I am a writer. I am a wife. I am tired. I am busy. I am fulfilled - I am longing still. I am trying. I am succeeding. I write from my heart until I feel it in my bones - I write because my heart is heavy with feeling and I need to let it go. I write from my soul when I feel like life is the most beautiful treasure to behold. And I try to capture that feeling of joy and love on the piano and in melody. I write because I have to. I write because the songs are there. I sing because I can!!!! This album was written and recorded through the birth and growth of 2 beautiful children. My friends say this is my third child. I'm not sure how I did any of it really. I just kept moving forward. And I knew that if I didn't - I would always have regrets. This is my impossible dream. I did it because I wanted to empower myself and other women at the same time. I wanted to empower any and everyone who has ever had an impossible dream. It would be my dream come true if I am able to touch your heart and life with mine. Peace
