Who is Mozel? Kevin Mozel Daniels is an extraordinarily talented Singer/Songwriter/Producer brought to us from his native hometown of St. Petersburg, Florida. Mozel's gift of music was delivered straight from heaven at an early age when he belted out his first heartfelt tunes in church and other various community choirs. He was a performer, and it was clear he was something very special. A rising talent, who already possessed a unique vocal range far beyond his tender years. Growing up, Mozel followed his calling and quickly began his singing career. He understood the dynamics of his taste in music, and in order to bring all of that creativity to the surface, he spent time familiarizing himself with artists, who in many ways, brought a distinctive sound to their own decade. It was those sounds that laid the groundwork for Mozel, giving him the desire to create his very own music. Mozel continued to not only experiment with his style, but he quickly learned to master it. He broadened his flavor to include both Hip Hop and R&B, yet still keeping a wonderful balance of sweet, gospel retro. And the results were undeniably beautiful. Now living in South, Florida, Mozel is a powerful performer who is clearly moving in the right direction. He has been featured on various gospel albums ;soloist on the 1999 Miami Workshop Project compact disc entitled, 'Jesus is the Real Thing, the Dextas Lab compilation The Cross and the Crown and many more.' Through the help and Grace of God Mozel's talents are becoming well renown. He performs and speaks at charity events, church functions, and youth related seminars. And as a Producer/Songwriter, he has collaborated with various artists in Miami and Ft. Lauderdale, St. Petersburg Florida New York, Texas and many other Places. Mozel is an amazingly gifted young man. He is bringing such a flavorful edge to contemporary gospel; something we all haven't heard before.
