The band ,RANDOM TEST, has performed these and many other greats along with their original songs. Random Test has performed in legendary establishments such as The Stone Pony, Tradewinds, The Fast Lane, The Waterfront, and Joey Harrison's Surf Club. This Red Bank based band performs regularly at Echo in Red Bank, NJ and various establishments from New York to Delaware. They have opened for some of reggaes greats, such as The Wailers, Burning Spear, Culture, The wailing Souls and Kamani Marley, to name a few. The band's name expresses their belief that life presents us each with many random tests. Their are many choices to make and avenues to choose. "As I yearn, I journey through each Random Test - Jah Wurks." With lead singer and song writer "Danny", Donald Smith, at the helm of the reggae sound cruise...you can't help but feel the vibes. His love and smooth charismatic stage presence has fans dancing and singing long after the music has stopped!! Danny is originally from Port Antonio, Jamaica. He has opened for artists like Gregory Issacs, Ritchie Stephens and Beres Hammond. Add to that the ultra talented Devon Atherley, from Trinidad, on keyboards and Alan McIntyre, from Grenada, keeping the base strong and steady ...and the magical base for this band is set. Drums and lead guitar and the female voice of Mari are all combined to make for one of the best new and original Roots Rock Reggae Bands to hit the Jersey Shore! Don't miss out experiencing the love and magic of this great band..!!!
