An instrumental journey with ethnic feel and Mediterranean temperament. Much like a film score revealing images, mood and feelings. 18 MP3 Songs WORLD: Mediterranean, WORLD: Balkan Details:

"Mediterranean Myths" is Magoulas second instrumental album, rooted in his experience of bringing together samplers with unusual combinations of instruments. You can hear the Balkan Gypsy Brass Band together with the Mandolin, Ethnic Percussion with Classical Guitar and Strings. The CD primarily sounds like a soundtrack: a nostalgic journey into the air of the Mediterranean Sea. Musically wise, Yiorgos merges Greek music forms with Italian, Spanish, Balkan, Gypsy and the so-called Mediterranean temperament. -Released: February 2008 -Printed in USA Musicians YIORGOS MAGOULAS : Classical Guitar , Mandolin , Piano KOSTAS THOMAIDIS : Mandolin DIMITRIS KOUSTAS : Accordion MARCEL SPINEI : Violoncello with pre-recorded Balkan Brass Band, Strings and Ethnic Percussion Bio /

Background YIORGOS MAGOULAS Born in Athens, Yiorgos is a versatile and awarded composer. Since 1991 he has written a number of orchestral scores as well as music scores for short-films, television, theatrical plays, and documentaries. He is skilled guitarist, pianist and mandolin player.
