"Discover How YOU Can Instantly Create Multiple Private Label Articles Uniquely Using A Powerful Point-n-Click Software!" For The First Time Ever, Find Out How You Can Save Tons Of Your Own Sweet Time In Rewriting The Articles You've Purchased The Private Label Rights To... With The Click Of The Mouse! From The Keyboard Of Leonard Payne Date: Wednesday, July 25, 2012 Dear Friend, If you want to find out how YOU can quickly and easily churn out articles you've purchased the Private Label Rights to and become unique without wasting so much time and effort on rewriting, then listen up -- because this letter is about how you can put an end to that problem! With the craze and rave going on about Private Label Rights in the Internet Marketing arena for the last couple of months, I am not one bit surprised if you have taken the plunge into this wonderful opportunity -- or even join exclusive membership site(s) that offer a fresh supply of Private Label articles on a monthly basis for that matter. Why not, anyway? Because for the first time ever, the most expensive type of rights in both offline and online industries is now made so affordable to the masses! And also for the first time ever, ordinary individuals like you and me can quickly and easily skip the article writing phase! Having said that, you've probably guessed it, too, that I haven't also taken a dive into this Private Label mania, with the sea of rich opportunities it offers. But There Is Are Some Problems. Just as quickly the Private Label Rights mania came along, so were some notable problems. * Problem #1: Mad Competition! If so many people have the Private Label Rights to the same collection of articles, then it may as well be called "Public Label Rights". Quite simply, the purpose have been defeated. Sure, you can join Private Label Rights membership sites with limited membership spaces (as in the region of 50 to 500 members), but here's another problem: * Problem #2: Duplicated Content While webmasters put a strict cap onto their Private Label Rights membership spaces in effort to limit the competition, and that with good faith only a fraction of the members will do anything to take action at all with the Private Label articles, this will still result in one thing: duplicated content! Can you

imagine two same articles with two different authors and resource boxes? You get the picture -- and it's not going to be beautiful. This can ultimately result in your article submissions being rejected by article directories or dropped by the search engines! * Problem #3: Making Enemies With Major Search Engines

If you are a SEO Optimist, then you are probably risking your friendship with major Search Engines such as Yahoo! and Google. In a nutshell, you will risk having your articles listed as "duplicated content" and will end up getting filtered by Search Engines. What will this cost you? Your top ranking in Search Engine results and an opportunity to get free visitors through the Search Engines. Solution -- Or Just Another Problem? Alternatively, you can edit and rewrite the Private Label articles. You can make your articles unique. You can avoid "kicking the bucket" with major Search Engines if you are depending heavily on free Search Engine traffic and high rankings. You can... only if you have the time and that you are blessed with writing skills. Short of rewriting Private Label articles, again, the purpose of Private Label Rights is once again defeated. You will spend more time rewriting just to avoid all of the above mentioned problems. And if you hate writing, it adds to the pain. You probably hate writing. You probably don't have so much time in a day, either. You probably don't have the budget to afford an exclusive ghostwriter to write just for you. Well, it need not have to be that way. And in spite of the problems, Private Label Rights will definitely be here to stay. Because I am about to offer you a solution that can:

- * Save you time and effort from rewriting your Private Label articles completely,
- * Help you avoid from having your articles black listed from major Search Engines,
- * Help you avoid from having your articles banned from article submissions, and
- * Make yourself unique and stand out of the rest of the "me too" crowd who might also own the Private Label Rights to same articles you have!

Simple add extra text or add HTML code to turn the output article(s) into READY MADE web pages! 6. Optional Text Blocks; The option of adding an extra 5 text or html blocks, placed between paragraphs. Excellent for affiliate links or adsense code. 7. Output Format; Three options for output article(s). Either .txt / .htm / .php The .htm & .php compliment the headers and footers option of using html code to output "READY MADE" web pages in .htm or .php format. All this is done with a simple Point-n-Click software application, that ANYONE can use! Discover What You Can Do With This Amazing Unique Content Pro Software Tool: If you are depending heavily on major Search Engines for free traffic and exposure to your business, the last thing you will ever want to do is to be enemies with them. Finally, with Unique Content Pro, you can now avoid from having your articles filtered by major Search Engines as "duplicated content"! You don't have to risk getting banned by top article directories on your article submissions. Since your articles are now unique thanks to Unique Content Pro, you can confidently stand out of the rest of the "me too" crowd, no matter how many of them got hold onto the Private Label Rights to the collection of articles you have! Watch your competitors struggle... ... with rewriting Private Label articles that they don't even have the time to wonder how you can steer ahead of them with the same collection of articles! Imagine the amount of money you can be making right now simply because you've saved tons of time and effort on churning out your very own unique content from Private Label articles! Since there's no need to spend a lot of unnecessary time on rewriting your Private Label articles, the free time can best spent on using the articles to do your article/viral marketing and make money for you! And much, much more! And Think About It: Assuming you take 15 minutes to rewrite one article, and you have 100 articles to rewrite: $15 \text{ minutes} \times 100 \text{ articles} = 1,500 \text{ minutes} = 25 \text{ hours}$! Obviously, this math is rather theoretical. It's also assuming that you take 15 minutes to rewrite a Private Label article (which might take longer than that if writing is not your forte) and that you can work non-stop for 25 hours on 100 articles! But with Unique Content Pro, you can create over 100 unique Private Label articles within minutes or even seconds! This is so much cost and time effective compared to rewriting the articles manually on your own, which would obvious consume more time and effort. How much is an extra 25 hours to you? And also, this software is well over \$197.00 and above in value! In other words, you would have to pay that sum of money to have a programmer specially design a software that takes your Private Label articles and make them unique within seconds! But I understand that you probably don't have \$197.00, although selling this software at this hefty price isn't much of a problem because of the tremendous amount of time, effort and potential revenue it can save, people will still invest in this unique piece of powerful application. However, I have a genuine desire to help you overcome your problems where creating unique Private Label articles are concerned. Therefore, I am releasing this software to you at a rock-bottom price of only \$7.95! If you want to turn your PLR articles into REAL unique content, then click the order button below YES, Leonard! I want to purchase Unique Content Pro, please give me instant access, even if it's 2.00am To your success, Leonard Payne
